Dad and Grant had taken a walk out to the hay field. They were checking to see if the hay was ready to cut.

A

Grant heard a tractor coming. He went running to meet Mr. Neil.

“I would be happy to tell you about how this works,” Mr. Neil said. “This is what cuts the hay. It is like a really big lawn mower.”

Mr. Neil cruised around the field until all the hay was down.

Draw lines from the numbers to the sentences to show what happened first, what happened next, and what happened last.

1

Mr. Neil drove around and around. Every time he went by, the tractor left a windrow. Before long, the whole field was raked.

2

Mr. Neil stopped to chat before he left. “Well, I need to get back home. I’ll be back tomorrow to bale.” Mr. Neil promised.

3

Two days later Mr. Neil came back, just like he said he would. This time he had a strange implement behind his tractor.

4

Mr. Neil drove over to the field, and a moment later, the wheels on the hay rake were spinning.

Draw lines from the numbers to the sentences to show what happened first, what happened next, and what happened last.

1

“I drive right over the top of the windrows of hay, and the baler pulls the hay up inside. The baler rolls the hay around and around until it is full size.”

2

Grant got up early the next morning. He got outside just as he saw Mr. Neil coming down the road once again.

3

“The bale rolls out, and then I drive on to the next bale.”

4

“The tractor makes a beeping sounds once the bale is full sized. Then I pull a lever which opens up the back of the baler.”
